GERALD GALLEGOS JOINS ROUNDUP RIVER RANCH BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Edwards, Colorado—Roundup River Ranch is pleased to announce that Gerald Gallegos, CEO of The Gallegos Corporation, has joined the Roundup River Ranch Board of Directors. Mr. Gallegos joins an engaged group of community members and business people who have come together to carry out Paul Newman's dream of opening camps for children with serious illnesses, right here in Eagle County. "We are thrilled to have Gerald join the organization," Board Chair Alison Knapp, said. "He is a long standing community leader. His desire to help children, combined with professional expertise, will bring invaluable strengths to our already diverse group of board members."

The Board of Directors for Roundup River Ranch includes Chair Alison Knapp, Pam Bard, Jeri and Charlie Campisi, Ida and Wiley Daniel, Kathy Ferguson, Craig Foley, John Forester, John and Linda Galvin, John Gates, Georgia Gogel, Lia Gore, Jane Healy, Rick Hermes, Merv Lapin, Sandy and Charles Lloyd, Robert Mandell, Bernie and Suzanne Scharf, Beth Slifer, Susan Washing, Carole Watters, Karin and Bob Weber, Kim and Steve Winesett and now also Gerald Gallegos.

Mr. Gallegos is Founder/CEO of The Gallegos Corporation, a company who firmly believes in giving back to the communities in which it works. The company supports hundreds of local organizations. Gerald Gallegos is a native Coloradoan who was born in Southern Colorado. He graduated from Battle Mountain High School and continued his education at Mesa State College in Grand Junction. "I am delighted to join the Board of Roundup River Ranch. Working to help children is my passion and the mission of this camp spoke to me. I look forward to enabling children who have a serious illness to enjoy the simple joy of going to camp here in our Valley," commented Mr. Gallegos.

Roundup River Ranch, located on 85 stunning acres along the Colorado River just north of Dotsero, Colorado, is expected to break ground later this year. The camp will provide children who may not otherwise have the opportunity to experience camp with a fun, memorable, safe and empowering experience, all free of charge. The Children's Hospital of Denver is the founding partner hospital, ensuring that the children will have on-site the medical services necessary to their conditions. The camp will serve children from Colorado as well as Wyoming, Montana, New Mexico, Kansas, Nebraska, North Dakota, Oklahoma, South Dakota, Utah and Texas. As a provisional member of The Hole in the Wall Camps, Roundup River Ranch is proud to continue Paul Newman's dream of opening camps for children with serious illnesses. The Hole in the Wall Camps are widely viewed as setting the standard for excellence in the industry.
